The costs associated with attending UMass Global include instructional and non-instructional costs. Instructional costs consist of tuition, fees, books and supplies. Non-instructional costs include rent, utilities, food, transportation, clothing, laundry, recreation and other personal expenses. These costs might vary considerably from one individual to another. Reasonable child/dependent care expenses can be added to the cost of attendance with adequate documentation provided by the student, depending upon age and number of children.

The non-instructional expenses shown above are based upon average expenses reported by California students in the Student Expenses and Resources Survey (SEARS) conducted by the California Student Aid Commission: https://www.csac.ca.gov/sites/main/files/file-attachments/final_student_budget_grid_2019-20.pdf
